

7 Reasons You Should Visit Bali In Indonesia At Least Once In Your Life

You don't have to work for the whole time of your life. You need sometimes escaping from the routine. Maybe, traveling is potentially good for you, but traveling around the home country is too common. At least once in your life, traveling to the other countries will be very profitable and good not only for refreshing but also learning the other cultures.

Instead of visiting some places in your comfort zone, going abroad is better, especially Bali in Indonesia. It is one of the most beautiful places full of paradises you can visit for getting away from all the busyness of life. Visiting Bali is a great deal for you by all means.

Here are 7 reasons you should visit Bali in Indonesia at least once in your life:

1. Tropical Climate Keeps You Warm All The Time

Since traversed by the equator, Bali only has two seasons: dry and wet. The period of each season is unpredictable. However, you don't need to worry about the cold of winter. You'll get warm all the time even in wet season. Getting tanned on the beach is a thing most people do here. Just imagine what it is like sunbathing on the white sand beach under the coconut tree, It's really like paradise!

2. Lovely Place That Worth Your Money

Compared to the other countries, the living cost in Indonesia is fairly cheap, so are the other costs. Perhaps the airplane ticket is expensive from your country, yet other domestic things are extremely worth your money. For instance, you can live in Bali for $100 USD/week as a backpacker, including the cost of accommodation, meal, and travel. Don't worry, you still get proper facility and food on that budget.

3. Friendly Balinese Everywhere

The locals are very friendly and nice to all foreign tourists. Wherever you come from and whoever you are, they ain't racist. If you can't speak Bahasa, Indonesian language, you can speak English with them as well, because they are used to speaking English with the tourists. When you visiting Bali, don't be surprised by the local strangers who smile or greet you, "Hello Mister!"

4. Full of History and Hindu Culture

A lot of historical temples in Bali become allurements for all people who visit this island. Trust me there are around twenty thousand temples in Bali. The majority of temples are identical to Hindu culture. No wonder if the island of Bali is also well known as the Hinduism center in Indonesia. If you're so lucky, you'll get involved in religious event carried out in certain days.

5. Countless Beautiful Beaches Along The Shoreline

When you are questioning about the best beach in Indonesia, without a doubt the answer is Bali. Not only one, the beautiful beaches are even countless along the shoreline. The beaches are partially touched by the human, but the rests are still virgin and become hidden paradises. Some beaches most people visit are Kuta, Jimbaran, Nusa Dua, Pandawa, Sanur, Dreamland, Tanah Lot, and others.

6. The Accommodation is Quite Reasonable

As mentioned before that Bali makes your money worth. The accommodation to stay in Bali is also quite reasonable, depending on your style. The hotels line up along the street, even in the alley, providing diverse facilities based on its price. The cheapest one is likely under $10 USD/night with a shared room, an outside bathroom, and of course without breakfast. However, if you really want to enjoy the holidays, you can stay at a resort, villa, or other luxurious places.

7. Local Food is Worth A try

Instead of benefiting the fast food like McDonalds or KFC, experiencing the local food is much more memorable. Bali is home to some of the traditional cuisines full of Asian spices. As the island is surrounded by the beach, seafood becomes very tempting. Having seafood as dinner while enjoying the sunset on the seaside is worth a try. Other valuable local foods are bebek betutu, sate lilit, nasi jinggo, and many more. Those foods are part of Balinese's heritage. But, you can also devour the most common food yet tasty, it's nasi goreng!