Bali: Where you should be going?

As you plan your meeting in Bali Urban Oasis, why not have an itinerary to explore the Island of God? Bali Urban Oasis is a perfect meeting point with world class facilities in a strategic location. Hence, even during your short trip, there is always a reason to explore Bali.

Bali lives up as a tropical paradise among the other 17,000 islands in Indonesia. Although Bali is suffering from commercialism but there are incredible places that offer distinctive features of the island's culture and beauty. Whether you are exploring the stretches of beach or the culture of its people, Bali points of interest have everything to offer every visitor.

Kuta

Asking about Bali points of interest, Kuta should be on the list. Kuta was a sleepy village turned to fame. As an international destination, visitors can enjoy the scenic Kuta beach during the day and be entertained with a drink in a beautiful lounge at night. Kuta is a premier destination – with only minutes away from Ngurah Rai international airport.

Seminyak

Seminyak is situated on the south coast of Bali – a small town with expansive growth that now becomes an exclusive destination. Many luxury hotels and high end restaurants are well established in this area, not to mention, the spas and fashion boutiques. The city attracts travelers from around the world due to its panoramic scene of Indian Ocean and its big waves and beautiful sunset.

Tanah Lot

Tanah Lot is a famous landmark in Bali. It's a Hindu temple that has been part of Balinese life. Tanah Lot is one among 7 temples situated next to the sea. The whole place can be very busy during the day and in the afternoon, tourists flock can be seen waiting for the breathtaking sunset view offshore. This magnificent place also has mazes of souvenir shops offering Balinese traditional crafts before you finally reach the site.

Ubud

Terraced rice fields with mountains as the backdrop – Ubud is the cultural heart of Bali. Ubud is also the home to Balinese museums and painting galleries. After being featured in Box Office movie, Eat Pray Love, Ubud tourism blossomed with crowds and expats who would love the idea to escape from the hustle and bustle of the city with their bicycles. Surrounded by rice paddies – Ubud is the perfect place to view Bali greeneries impressively.
