COMPANY PROFILE

Welcome To Our Cool Planet

We´ve Worked For Companies
Around The Universe

PROTOCOL

Planetiko — an Indonesian creative company providing solutions for any creative-thing. We founded on October 10, 2010. Among our product are both fresh concept and professional work for integration into larger business solutions. All our design is based on company research and unification of creative ideas from our team.

We're proud of our strong work reputation, comprehensive services, and broad nationwide coverage. We go out of our way to deliver solutions that help clients create agile and strong brands that engage and inspire today's and tomorrow's consumer into business results.

ESCAPADE

LOGO & BRANDING

Effective logo design and branding makes for efficient marketing. A veritable snapshot of your company's brand, your corporate logo sends a direct and immediate message to your audience, so it is important to convey that message properly.

WEB DESIGN & DEVELOPMENT

Having an online web presence is critical for any business especially in this global 24/7 economy. We will help you integrate your current branding into a website and effectively create an online strategy so that your website can help add to your business's bottom line.

GRAPHIC & PRINTING DESIGN

Graphic and print marketing retains the tactile impact not afforded by internet marketing alone. From brochures and sales sheets to posters and advertisements, graphic and print design offers a portable medium that your clients can take with them wherever they go.

GARMENT

Clothing is one of the basic needs are still always needed at this time. As a provider of primary needs, we always put quality and timeliness. Not only for daily needs, clothing can also be used as a media campaign on special event.

PACKAGING DESIGN

Appealing package design is the most directly effective way to attract new customers and convert those of your competitors. Achieving your marketing goals and inspiring confidence in your customers needn't be mutually exclusive objectives, they just require a balanced approach.

MERCHANDISING

A small gift for customers, clients or your partner is meaningful to them. It will make them feel closer to your product or your company. Pamper them means making them more loyal. This merchandise can be umbrellas, backpacks, wallets, ballpoint, etc.

Works are challenge for us. We always done every project with fun & proud. Our clients also feel happy and satisfied with our work so far. If you have other kind of creative projects that we haven´t explored yet, please CHELLENGE US!
